MARK S. REESE, SHERIFF

As the elected Sheriff of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, I recognize the primary responsibility of law enforcement is to protect the citizens and preserve individual rights and freedoms.

I have been honored to have been appointed by the Governor of Pennsylvania and then elected by the citizens of my county, and have sworn an oath each time to support, obey and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I have worked continuously as a peace officer in Lancaster County since June 1989 to uphold that oath.

In accordance with the Second Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, I believe that law abiding citizens have the right to own, possess, keep and bear arms.

I will not support any efforts to infringe upon the constitutional liberties of responsible citizens in Lancaster County.

I continue to stand with my citizens to assure that their rights under the Constitution and the Bill of Rights will not be infringed.
